Credits, licence & help

*Kept short, like his attention spanYOUR LICENCE

Licence: personal use. Print as many copies as you need for yourself, your household and the people you give them to as a gift. Please don't resell, re-upload or share the file publicly. For other uses, email info@reallybyte.com.

All drawings, puzzles, jokes and layouts are REALLYBYTE's own original work. Useless is REALLYBYTE's mascot: a pink and blue eraser with stick legs. Nobody knows what he does.

Everything in this pack is a joke. The people, excuses and achievements are made up, and any resemblance to your office is a coincidence (probably).

NEED HELP?

Useless can't help (he's an eraser, and he's busy looking busy), but we can. Problems with your file, or spotted something we should fix? Email info@reallybyte.com.
